A Word from the Director

Welcome to The Desperate Housewives of Shakespeare! I've been so thrilled to play with these kiddos in this safe environment and present this fun show to you, our audience!

This definitely ISN'T Shakespeare, but it did give us a fun opportunity to learn about the different characters that you will see in our show today, and what experiences turned them into the people they become. We had so much fun learning about the history of slapstick and commedia dell'arte, and exploring some of the fun physical humor that so many comedians have become famous for over the years!

We hope you enjoy more than a few laughs with us as we view this very unconventional portrait of Elizabethan times.

Brenda Goodenberger, Director

Desperate Housewives of Shakespeare Setting

I was asked to decipher a setting for our play today. As our key players range all over in time and place, we will just have to conjecture that Bill and Ted are somehow involved in their unlikely meeting. For our purposes, we will assume they are having morning tea at Lord and Lady Macbeth's castle, in the sitting room, with a knife...

Brenda Goodenberger, Director

Help Keep Our Kids in the Spotlight!

A Word from Our Artistic Director...

What you don't see (but might have been involved with in some way) is the incredible journey that the actors and their families take while getting onto the stage. The wonderful experiences are too long to list, and are always in progress.

That is what makes Spotlight unique: the sense of community and love off of the stage. Everything we do is for the families and kids that participate.

We have no adult theatre to follow, and no city or big corporation to support us. The reality of the business of theatre is that the odds are against us to survive, and we are continually struggling with finances. We have volunteers and board members working endlessly to keep the theatre solvent and open. Sometimes we need more help.

We are asking for 100 people to donate $100 (the price of one night out at Cheesecake Factory) to help us get through a very rough time. Whether your kids are grown up and moved on or you have future thespians, we hope that you can help and also spread the word.

If you need to talk with me please, do not hesitate to call, email or text me.

Thank you,
